SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 18, 1868.

P.p. Mauá and Co.

WILLIAM LESLIE

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p %) per annum, which is liquidated ever six months.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

The Company insures on equitable terms, and at a fixed premium, every description of property. The Company is solely and exclusively responsible for losses OCCASIONED BY FIRE which may be suffered by insured parties.

The total premium is payable in advance, in cases where the Insurance is effected for a term of one year or less; and annually where the term exceeds one year. In terms of from 5 to 10 years, payment in advance of 5 years premium, entitles the Insured to the reimbursement of one year's premium; or in other words the Company will only charge the premium corresponding to four years.

Payment in advance of ten year's premium entitles the Insured to the reimbursement of two year's premium; with a further abatement of 10 p. cent; on the premium corresponding to the term of eight years: that is he will only be charged with the amount of eight year's premiums—less 10 p. cent.

The Company furnishes guarantees of the highest character, from the fact of there being no other Fire Insurance Company, at a fixed premium, having its head residence in the Argentine Republic; and also from the circumstance of its large capital.

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1866.

THE ENGLISH AMATEUR THEATRICALS.

GREAT SUCCESS.

On Tuesday evening the foreign community of Buenos Ayres, was treated to another amateur Theatrical performance in aid of the British Hospital, many as are the advantages of this deserving institution to the British residents, none can be more obvious, than the excuse it affords, to some of the principal English ladies and gentlemen of this city to appear once a year on the boards of the Victoria-People who never frequent a theatre, are induced possibly through a charitable motive to take a box on such occasion, and thus it is that on an amateur night the audience is more select, 'recherche', and entirely different to that seen on ordinary occasions at our theatres. It is impossible to overlook the many difficulties which surroundan amateur performance, the gentlemen are for the most part actively employed in business and have little time to study their parts, and the ladies from some prudish motives, hitherto [except on one occasion] refused to appear in public. This year however, charity triumphed over bashfulness, and three English ladies kindly consented to take parts.

The play-bill was well selected: Morton's amusing farce of the 'Thumping Legacy,' so well known to all English play-goers. Then the songs, bones banjo and stump speech entertainment was a very attracting novelty, while Jerrold's eccentric drama, "Cool as a Cucumber," completed the entertaining repertoire.

The Victoria theatre was crowded at 8 o'clock, and punctual to a moment the curtain rose. The Thumping Legacy, is so well known to all our readers that it is unnecessary to describe the plot.—Mr. Stanfield as the innkeeper and head of the house of Geronimo was well up in his part, and quite at home in the personification of the cowardly yet revengeful Corsican.

Mr. Fred Jacobs, as Jerry Ominons, was a perfect Cockney; his perplexing position was true to life. Mr. Spence. as Leoni, acted his part well, although there was a stiffness of gait which seems inseparable from amateurs on their first appearance. Bambogetti was a small character for such an actor as Mr. Boyd, who is now admitted to be the Matthews of the River Plate—Mr. B. went through his part with his proverbial nonchalance. The Brigadier, Mr. Warden of the River Plate Bank, was an unimportant part played well. Mr. W., with a half moon sword by his side, marched off with his prisoner, the trembling Jerry Ominous, with the precision of a Nazar or a Guido. But the charming Miss Heath as the village belle was the great attraction; when she made her appearance the house shook with applause, her voice, however, is too weak for the stage, and, though she was faultless in her part, her plaintive girlish accents contrasted poorly with the indignant threats of a vengeful Corsican girl when plucking a dagger from her girth to intimidate the poor trembling young Jacobs—there was an assumed passion which so young a girl could never personate; as a village belle and a lovely coquette Miss Heath was at home in her part, but it would require the talents of a Miss O'Neil to rescue from ridicule the handling of a dagger by so young a girl. The curtain fell with the usual applause.

After a short interval Mr. Jones, accompanied on the piano by Mr. Reinken, sang that sweetest of Byron's lyric compositions, 'Maid of Athens.' Mr. Jones has a fine sweet voice, more suited, however, for a room than for a theatre: he sang plaintively correct.

Mr. Myles, whose musical reputation is ascertained, next favored the audience with a Baracolla, his voice sonorous, his singing exact: the house rung with applause.

Next came Mr. Albert Phillips, of the Southern Railway, as the Nigger. It is difficult to do justice to Mr. P.'s singing, acting, playing, and speaking. If one of the Christy's Minstrels from New York made his appearance at the Victoria, we question if he would have done better than our railway friend, in fact, it is the best thing of the kind we ever witnessed here or elsewhere. He began by singing that favorite nigger song called 'Cider,' accompanying himself on the bones—the house rung with applause—then he sang 'Tapioca,' which is also a favorite ditty, but his great musical triumph was a song of his own composition called 'The Chascomus Young Man;' the verses were spicy and interlarded with small local matters which provoked roars of laughter. The individual in question left Chascomus for what he terms a 'pasear;' came up to town; got victimized by a photographic man; fell in love with a captivating French lady, who was head engineer at a milliner's shop; flirted about town with her; lost his money; took a trip to the beach; and wound up by falling through the hole in the mole. The house shook with applause, encores, &c. Then Mr. Phillips presented himself in the garb of a seedy respectable but retired negro orator, with an old cotton umbrella, with which ever and anon he whacked the old pine table before him. He began his speech by adverting on the ravages of the scab in sheep; touched up Mr. Chapman's cure; commented on bad Hesperidina; Bagley's advertisement in the 'Standard;' the British Hotel failure; Flores coming to Buenos Ayres and not visiting him; Lopez played out one day and the next victorious; and wound up with a stampede peroration which resulted in smashing his umbrella, capsizing himself, and nearly upsetting the table on the foot lights.

Never before was there such a success in Buenos Ayres; the lecture was tinged with personalities which though not offensive were amusingly ridiculous. The stormy applause must have been gratifying to Mr. Phillips, who is a young man of acknowledged talents, and although he missed no opportunity to have a cut at the 'Standard,' we recognize his great merits, and freely admit he was the hero of the night.

"Cool as a Cucumber" was next on the list. Mr. Spence acted the part old Mr. Barkins admirably, although if he had assumed a grey beard it would have concealed his juvenile appearance better. Fred Barkins, his son, was young Mr. Jacobs, which did not half so well suit him as jerry ominous. The Love-sick scene was really awkward, Mr. Jacobs did not know where to put his hands or how to assume despair as a cockney he was excellent, as a lover, out of place Mr, Horatio G. B. W. W. T. Plumper, the unexpected visitor and cucumber man, was Mr. Boyd; the part was admirably sustained, nothing could have been better; Mr Boyd went through his part with a 'sang froid,' a sort of indescribable nonchalance which none but a Boyd can attempt. The introductory scene, where Mr. Boyd is caught on the top of the table with old Barkins' portrait in his hand, was perfect, the gait the tone, the manners of Mr. B. are so intensely theatrical that it is difficult to realize he is an amateur. Jessie Honiton, Mr. Barkin's neice, was probably the most difficult part in the play; Mrs. Cooper, altho' not to say perfect, performed her part well, but we think it is hardly the part worthy of a handsome young woman like Mrs. C.

Mr. Hall, as Wiggins the housemaid, went through her part with a sweet coquetrie, and a bewitching smile; she personified the neat English house-maid with an ease and grace becoming an English lady, her fainting fit was open to slight comment, but it is no easy thing for a lady to faint into an arm chair which unfortunately is two or three feet out of the way. Her tete-a-tetes with the blustering man of the world, Mr. Plumper, was extremely dramatic, and it was indeed an agreeable surprize to find an English lady whose time is occupied with matronly duties, walk the stage with the elegance of a Laura Keene, and act her humble part with the dignity of a Helen Fawcett.

At ½ past 11 o'clock the green curtain fell, the whole of Calle Victoria was lined with carriages, and the crowd could not be greater.

Great as is the debt of the Hospital Committee to the kind ladies and gentlemen who, by their disinterested services, have secured a very handsome sum for this invariably hard-up institution, still greater, we hold, is the debt of the whole foreign community to those condescending friends who afforded so agreeable and refreshing a treat as the night's entertainment.

Upon the whole the audience, as usual in such cases, was very indulgent, although, we may say, our Buenos Ayrean Amateurs do not require much, but there was one 'gentleman,' however, in the pit, who had evidently dined, and attempted to be witty at the expense of the actors during the performance. Such want of taste was universally condemned.

THE JUNGLE FIGHT.

FURTHER DETAILS.

Corrientes, May 4, 1866.

The day before yesterday, we again heard a very uncomfortable cannonade, and what has occurred is as follows:—Flores was said to have been on a foraging expedition, or was 'carneando,' when he and 4 battalions of infantry, some cavalry, and 4 guns, were suddenly surrounded by 10,000 Paraguayans, who nearly destroyed him. He had two horses shot under him, lost his 4 guns and 3 flags, and the celebrated Battalion Florida came out numbering 40 men! He however rallied his men and recovered the 4 guns and 2 flags, 1 remaining with the Paraguayans, and fearful slaughter commenced 'en retirada.' In the meanwhile Emilio Mitre commenced to advance, as indeed the whole allied army. The 7th of the Line, Brazilians, and a Paraguayan regiment deserve notice.

Osorio had his horse shot under him, and was slightly hurt by the fall. The Paraguayans who were wounded, and saw the Brazilians advancing, put up their hands as though supplicating for their lives, which, as the truth must be told, was granted them: however, directly the Brazilians had advanced the wounded Paraguayans commenced to fire at them. On their return they killed every wounded Paraguayan they found.

One thing is remarkable. No sooner had young Flores planted his flag, than the 'cornette' of Mitre sounded a retreat.

Allied loss, 1,500. Paraguayan loss, 2,310, including the 'redactor' of the 'Semanario,' who commanded in chief, and an 'ayudante' of President Lopez. Flores lost four of his 'ayudantes,' and nearly every officer was killed or wounded.

Last night a steamer brought 214 wounded; and to give you an idea of what we have to expect, one of our churches here in the Plaza is about to be the 'destinado' for 'heridos.' The Hotel de los Aliados is already disoccupied for that purpose: the priest has also removed his quarters.

Lopez has no intention of going to Europe at all, and his allowing the army to pass into Paraguay has, they say here, been a 'coup de grace.'

Mrs. Lopez left her bonnet and a pair of satin shoes in a bandoox near Itapiru. To meet the Baron de Porto Alegre Lopez has sent a large body of men, sufficient proof that he considers his grand army a match for our grand army.

Fancy! when Flores was surrounded and cut up, all of a sudden he discovered the Paraguayans had been covered up, or covered over, with weeds, brushwood, &c. Then, as I said before, the Florida Battalion found itself reduced to 40 men.

The two guns they had in Itapiru were taken from the Jequitihona [some name like this.] They have five forts between where the allied army is and Humaita. The Paraguayans have not budged an inch since they allowed us to pass.

When the Brazilians passed to the Paraguayan side, the first 700 men were all Paraguayans taken in Yatay! Fancy!

All this loss of life for nothing. The squadron has been bombarding some small fort; but the Paraguayans did not answer them. At the time I am writing this I distinctly hear a fresh cannonade, 'quien sabe' where [2 p.m.]

The Correntinos are not content with their present Governor, Lopez, and as last night patrols were to be seen in the streets a revolution here is anticipated. 'Como por fin de fiesta.'

Yours truly,

OBSERVER.

EXCITING SCENE AT THE BOLSA.

THE PAPER DOLLAR MEETING.

ROM versus VARELA.

At 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening the Bolsa-hall was crowded with brokers, and before the business of the meeting began Dr. Rawson, Prime Minister; Dr. Avellaneda, Minister of Provincial Government; Dr. Dn. Mariano Varela, Minister of Hacienda; Dr. Dn. Velez Sarsfield, Sr. Dn. Rufina Varela, editor of 'Tribuna,' dropped in. Mr. Rom opened the proceedings by reading the 'Tribuna' programmes, which he opposed as unsafe, and calculated to produce much financial trouble. Mr. Rom's remarks were listened to with much attention.

Mr. Cerro then rose also to oppose the 'Tribuna' projects which he regarded as highly ridiculous. He spoke of scarcity of money, and how hard up most people in town were. During a short pause of the orator some persons in the hall began whistling and shouting, which so annoyed the speaker that he broke forth into very sturdy invectives against the puble, and went so far as to say that he would challenge the public.

Mr. R. Varela then rose to reply. He explained the various projects which appeared in the 'Tribuna,' showed the workings of the Banks of France, England, United States, Brazil, and the facilities with which our paper money could be redeemed if people only properly put their shoulder to the wheel. Mr. Varela's speech took the auditors by surprise. It was lucid and powerful, and lasted for over half an hour.

Mr. Rom rose to respond, but somehow Sr. Varela so carried the audience with him, that Mr. Rom found it rather difficult to remove the very favorable impression which Mr. Varela's speech produced.

At half-past 9 o'clock the meeting separated, every one being satisfied that the paper dollar was a great evil, and must and should be abolished. Another meeting is talked of.

THE WAR IN THE NORTH

BATTLE OF ESTERO BELLACO

GENERAL MITRE'S DESPATCH.

To His Ex. Dr. Marcos Paz, Vice-President of the Republic.

Head-quarters at Estero Bellaco
May 3rd, 1866.

I have the honor to inclose manuscript copies of notes 1 to 4, forming the 3rd bulletin of the allied army. Your Ex. will perceive that at 1 p. m. on the 2nd inst. a picked force of 6,000 of the enemy, horse and foot, supported by the rest of their army attacked our vanguard with more audacity than good fortune, having advanced by the Paso San Francisco through the Estero Bellaco which separates our advanced line from theirs.

Although they at first obtained some advantage over our advanced divisions, they were soon charged in front and flank by our reserves which drove them from the field and pushed them even beyond their hastily fortified outlines, obliging them to abandon the woods in which they had sought shelter after they had left in our possession 1,200 killed, 3 guns, 2 flags, 800 muskets and a host of prisoners: the latter are mostly wounded and their exact number cannot be ascertained as they are taken to hospital with our own wounded. The total loss of the allies amounts to 656 hors de combat, mostly wounded.

All the troops fought with vigor and were ably commanded by their respective chiefs, especially the 7th Brazilian battalion which stood the first brunt of the enemy, the Oriental brigade, Victorino's division, Netto's cavalry, the 1st Argentine cavalry which repulsed the attack on our right and took a flag from the enemy.

As the most glorious trophies of this combat, gained by the Argentine arms, I have the honor to remit to Your Ex. the enemy's flag taken by our 1st reg. of cavalry, and a trumpet-taken by the Correntino horse yesterday morning.

I congratulate Your Ex. for this achievement which reflects such honor on the allied arms, trusting that you will cause this bulletin to be published as press of time will not allow its being printed in Corrientes.

May God preserved Your Excellency.

BARTOLOME MITRE.

P. S.—We have pitched our camp at the furthest point we reached yesterday on Estero Bellaco, being about a league in advance of where we were.

MITRE.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The English theatricals at the Victoria theatre on Tuesday night proved the greatest success; the house could not hold more. We hope the ladies and gentlemen who acted their parts so inimitably will give another performance.

Yesterday we received another despatch from Corrientes giving us still further details about the jungle fights but must keep it over for want of room until Saturday.

To-day is a holiday, and the cricketers expected a great concourse on the ground, as the return match with the Sharpshooters comes off, and Watson will have a grand refreshment tent on the sward. There will be no paper until Saturday morning, when our edition for the French packet will appear.

The Provincial Government has passed a note to all the Municipalities in the camp to send in full particulars as to their rents, etc. This is a good measure, and we compliment the Minister on his activity.

At the Bolsa on Tuesday night we learn that there was a terrible row: one indignant broker, who was laughed at and pooh-pooheed, lost his temper and wanted to challenge Mr. Rom and Mr. Varela. A broker who attended the meeting promised to send us a report, but as yet we have not received it.

The Rio Paraná, for Uruguay, leaves to-day. She takes up a number of passengers and several intending sheep-farmers, who wish to have a look at Entre Rios.

Ex-Governor Saavedra is rusticating at Higueritas, and trying to recover from the wearying effects of three years' toil as Governor of Buenos Ayres.

Congress met on Tuesday to arrange about the nomination of the Committees. Quere, what about Article 28?

The Entre-Riano Government seems to regard the new Codes as a sort of practical joke. Dr. Victorica has refused to allow Entre-Rios to join in the matter.

The Provincial Government has sent the usual note to the Governors of the Provinces, acquainting them of his election. On Monday we paid our respects to H. E. the new Governor, having been presented by the Minister of Government, Dr. Avellaneda. The Governor received us with much destinction, spoke very approvingly of the great interest we take in camp matters. We believe he is the right man in the right place, and that the people in the camp will have good reason to bless him. Government lands ought to be at once reduced 75 per cent. and then there would be no more 'epidemias,' losses, &c. from over crowding and over stocking.

About the guns said to have been taken from the Paraguayans in the fight of the 2nd inst. we have on good authority that at the outset the Paraguayans took from the Brazilians four rifled guns, and on their retreating left three other guns, small, and of an ordinary description. A rather unfavourable exchange. It is also stated that when the Paraguayans retreated after their attack on the vanguard, they sheltered themselves behind breastworks, thrown up for the occasion by the reserve of the attacking party, from whence they opened a most murderous fire upon the advancing columns of the allied reserve.

The Alia..o, with over 300 wounded, was to have left last night for Montevideo.

Another Brazilian transport, with a cargo of wounded, was to have come in last night; she has not yet arrived.

We learn with pleasure that a gentleman of much experience purposes giving in the Coliseum a series of lectures in English, on Australia, Vancouver's Island, and other parts which he has visited; some comic and nigger's songs will also be introduced. We have no doubt it will prove a great success.

Captain Curlewis' last words to us on the mole, as he headed the cortege of passengers about to leave for the Arno, were: "'Standard,' look sharp for me on the 12th;" as the Captain always keeps his words we may expect the packet on Saturday.

We learn from Montevideo that the Captain of the Annie Decatur accidently shot one of his men. It appears they refused to work, and crowded round the cuddy, and Captain Barnes fearing they might attempt to injure him, seized his revolver. The men crowded round him and the pistol went off accidentally killing one man; the ball passed through his skull. Captain Barnes has given himself up to the authorities, and at present has lodgings in the Cabildo—no one that knows him but regrets that he should have to suffer for an act that was purely accidental; he is an honest, straight, forward man; in fact, what may justly be called a thorough white man.

The Chief Engineer of the gun-boat Dotorel died at the British Hospital on the 2nd inst. of dysentery.

The U. States sloop of war Wacotah sailed this morning for the Pacific.

LATEST FROM LA PAZ.

HERON STILL ALIVE.

La Paz, Entre Rios, May 6th.

There is a general complaint of drought in this neighbourhood. Cattle are wandering in all directions. The camp burnings are frequent and destructive, in fact we are completely burnt up. What Buenos Ayres suffered during the summer we are suffering now.

Although winter has already set in, the steady advance of this town on the road towards improvement has received no check. New buildings are constantly running up. We are very much in want of a good hotel. Since Chappe's death we have nothing better than an Italian 'bochinche,' much to the inconvenience and disadvantage of all, but causing particular discomfort to the estancieros and other camp residents in the vicinity of the town. An enterprising hotel keeper would meet with support.

We have just seen a letter from Consul Hutchinson to a friend here. On his tour to Corrientes, he passed by here in the middle of the day. In the following extract he gives his impressions of the appearance of our town from the river:—"On our way up we went by La Paz and I was very much pleased with the view I got of your city from the river, particularly with the two most prominent objects the Custom-house and your square cemetery on the hill. The latter, although not a Pére La Chaise, has a most imposing appearance. The beauty of the river scenery, enhanced by the majesty of the boundless forest, and the delicious verdure of the hills surrounding it, is charming to the lovers of the picturesque." This from Consul Hutchinson, who is such a celebrated traveller, is no small compliment, and must be particularly gratifying to the people of La Paz.

A friend of ours from the Paso de la Patria has informed us, the Consul's visit has caused quite a sensation at the seat of war. He was constantly on board the Brazilian iron-clad, and Tamandaré treated him in the most complimentary manner. A ten oared barge from the admiral's ship was always at his service, and as he was rowed from ship to ship he was saluted by flag and cheer. He was generally welcomed on board by our national anthem God Save the Queen the accompaniment of the British cheer alone being wanting.

O what a soul stirring sound to hear our glorious hymn vibrate through the woods and echo from the banks of the Paraná! What a feeling of joy animated our Consul at the moment. The compliment paid was not only intended for the representative of England's Queen and England's Government, but also as a mark of personal respect to him, who by his talents, acquirements, and sovereign fidelity, fully merits, both for himself and his country, all the honors that can be paid him. He was also entertained by General Mitre in his tent, situated in one of these picturesque and beauteous orange groves abounding in the neighbourhood of Corrientes. The President was rejoiced to welcome, in the person of the British Consul, the author of that excellent work on the Argentine Republic, which is dedicated to himself.

Beron is almost completely forgotton. The few surmises hazarded as to his whereabouts, are so vague as scarcely to merit attention. Some say he is in the Chaco, some in Corrientes, but at all events the 'invasion' so much talked of some time since, ends, as we always believed it would, in nothing at all.

Large troops of horses continue to pass to the army.

It is calculated that last month some four thousand crossed the frontier to Corrientes.

There is no sale for cattle. The causes are first because the Brazilians are supplied with salt meat which they prefer, and secondly in consequence of the drought, all animals are lean, and consequently unsaleable.

A new law prohibiting all pedlar's carts from plying their trade, is about to be enforced. It is a very salutary measure, as these itinerant public houses, were the pest of the estancieros and the demoralization of peons. All 'pulperias,' save only in a district where an armed force is quartered, are also to be done away with, after September. Would that the latter law extended to Buenos Ayres, as in those dens of drunkeness and disorder, gambling is carried on without let or hindrance, robberies are of frequent occurrence and murders often planned.

Labour is scarce. Artizans, mechanics, and workmen much wanted. Persons of these classes coming here are sure of immediate employment and good wages.

Heat continues oppressive. Although the evenings are cool.

Pumpkins are in bloom and vegetation as luxuriant as in spring owing to a slight shower which has fallen recently.

SERANDI.

THE VICE-PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

JUSTICE, WORSHIP, AND PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

The national tribunals, as much on account of the number as of the nature of the causes brought within their jurisdiction, are daily consolidating the sphere of their actions, and evincing the wise combination of the Constitution which we have adopted, in submitting to the elevated and impartial examination of independent judges the solution of questions which might become intricate under other circumstances if carried to the arena of politics, and which would, in all probability, become converted into motives of disturbance.

The distinguished lawyers to whom was confided the task of drawing up the Civil and Rural Code gave to this important task their most arduous attention; they have already presented a part of their work which on a future occasion will be submitted for your sanction.

Notwithstanding the immense demands made by the war upon the public treasury the necessities for public worship have been attended to with due regularity. The Government hopes to receive shortly the bulls for the erection of the Archbishopric, created by your sanction, and which will serve as the first step towards the organization of the Ecclesiastical tribunals which hitherto have been wanting in the country.

The Government regrets that it has found itself limited in its ardent desire to extend public education, which is recognised by all as one of our chief necessities. Notwithstanding this and the rigorous economy which circumstances imposed, the Government believed that it was not permitted it to restrict this important branch of the administration of the resources destined for it.

The subvention granted to some of the provinces for primary instruction has been carried out in good time, and, thanks to it, those Governments have been enabled to support and augment the schools which this resource had founded.

The National Colleges progress rapidly, and justify day by day the hopes which their creation gave birth to. The demonstrations of applause and sympathy which they receive from the inhabitants of the locality, stimulate the Government to further efforts, inspiring it with the hope that with a continual progress in the number of professors, in the elements of learning, and in the number of edifices, these establishments will be considered as one of the greatest conquests of the present administration.

The Commission which was named for the drawing up of a plan of general and university instruction, has presented an important work, for which is due the thanks of the country for their arduous task. By marking out a fixed rule, which the establishments of education scattered over the Republic should follow, rendering access to one another easy, removing the difficulties which were opposed to the entrance of students to the higher studies, you have done a signal service to youths, and filled a necessity much felt in this country, which is essentially democratic, where it is convenient and even a duty to facilitate the entry to every career to which the citizen may aspire.

WAR AND MARINE.

While speaking of War, I beg to be allowed to make special mention of, and recommend to the gratitude of the country, the President of the Republic and Commander-in-Chief of the Allied Armies, as a patriotic citizen, able and experienced chieftain, he has merited the respect of the nations who have confided to him the direction of the campaign and the superior command of the armies, which up to the present he has been enabled to lead triumph and glory.

I feel a true satisfaction in announcing to you that the natives of the country have rallied at the call of the Government—gathering for the formation of an army from the remotest confines, and, like true soldiers, have already, in glorious combats, gained the thanks of their fellow-citizens and the allied nations.

Every measure adopted by the Government, and of which you were duly notified in a previous session, have produced the desired result. From all the Provinces, crossing sometimes immense districts, and overcoming great difficulties, the required contingents have arrived; all of these Provinces are represented in the national army; but I consider it my duty to bring under your special consideration the patriotism of the Province of Corrientes. Invaded by the enemy and the theatre of the war until the close of the year, it resisted the aggression and bore the sufferings which specially fell upon it during all that time.

After the glorious triumph of our arms on the 25th of May in the city of Corrientes, with which you are already acquainted, and many others of lesser note, which redounded to the glory of our arms, the battle of Yatay took place on the 17th of August, and the surrender in Uruguayana of the remains of an expeditonary army of the enemy, who fell into our hands without one man escaping, and which caused a loss to the invader of more than twelve thousand men; by these actions both banks of the river Uruguay were insured.

From that time the main body of the allied army marched across the Province of Corrientes, overcoming with admirable constancy the multitude of natural obstacles presented in such an undertaking. But the enemy, who was menacing still farther invasion, with the strongest part of its army on the left bank of the Paraná, did not dare wait the approach of our forces, and definitely abandoned the invaded territory of Corrientes, to where he returned again only to receive a fresh blow in the combat of the 31st of January, in which the allied army, represented by the brilliant National Guard of Buenos Ayres, obtained a signal triumph. From that time it was found necessary to seek the enemy, and on the 16th of last April the passage of the allied army was effected with the powerful co-operation of the Brazilian and Argentine fleets. This important operation, which offered so many difficulties, on account of the advantageous positions occupied by the enemy on the opposite bank of a broad and powerful river to be crossed, was executed so skillfully and with so little loss it will ever be a stamp of glory for the Commander-in-Chief of the Allied army.

At the present moment our armies are treading on Paraguayan territory without much loss of blood, having signalized their entry by brilliant deeds of arms by the Brazilian army, on the 10th, 16th, and 17th. The army of the enemy is now retiring to their last fortifications, where, everything induces us to hope, they will be shortly definitely beaten, for they already feel the sentiment of their impotency and respect the allied arms which have taught them such severe lessons in many bloody combats.

The services which the national squadron has rendered in the present struggle, as well as those of its Chief, are worthy of mention, having maintained the honor of the Argentine flag whenever the operations of the war have required its co-operation.

Notwithstanding the preferable attentions which the exigences of the war have required, it has likewise given its consideration to the protection of the frontiers. They have been alarmed by some invasions of savages, who, taking advantage of the absence of troops of the line, who formerly held that post, have been able some times to carry out their depredations, and at others have been duly punished. If it be taken into consideration that the security of the frontiers is at present exclusively in charge of the mounted National Guard, on account of the absence of the troops of the line incorporated in the allied army, it is not strange that some difficulty is found in preventing these lamentable invasions, but I believe you will be generally satisfied with the efforts made, and the measures adopted for attending to this important object, and which will be communicated to you by the Department of War.

You are aware of the unjust aggression of the Paraguayan Government which surprized the Republic in the midst of its pacific labours, and I will not attempt to conceal from you the difficulties with which the Government has had to struggle to place the army on a war footing, when nothing was ready, and every thing to be got ready with the greatest expedition which the circumstances demanded. To arm and equip an army of twenty five thousand provide for their subsistence and conveniences in a greater proportion hitherto known in this country, was a work which moreover being exceedingly expensive for the treasury, required at the activity, energy and zeal of the Administration. By the Report from the corresponding department you will become acquanted with the details of what has been done and will be enabled to judge of the importance.

I have briefly sketched the condition of affairs. The great feature is the national war to which we have been obliged to turn all the energies and power of the country; but it may be taken as an established fact that this war to which we have been so wantonly provoked is near its termination and that before the close of the session you will be enabled to devote your attention to the arts of peace and national re-organization.

BUTTER 6s. 8d. PER POUND.

Estancia Bella Dona, Pilar.

To the Editors of the 'Standard,'

Gentlemen,

In answer to the simple individual who signs himself "One who won't pay 6s. 8d. for a pound of butter," he has had a good reason for signing himself as such, for he has not paid, and never will, pay $40 a lb. for butter, and no one has, or ever will, ask such a price for his butter, and as he referred to a store in Calle Piedad I went to said place and found the butter to be $15 in place of $40. You will just please to insert these lines to show how he was mistaken.

Yours truly,

COMMON SENSE.

Specie fell seriously to-day, owing to the prevalent belief that the new Government is pledged to set a fixed value on paper money. The meeting at the bolsa last night was greatly discussed, and Sr. Varela's very splendid speech much commented on. The opinion now is fast gaining ground that the Government is sincere in its desire to reform the currency, and come what will, the present low price of gold being regarded as a favorable opportunity, a fixed value will be established.

The swindle in the bank is still the topic on 'Change, and according to the rumour amongst the brokers the deficit now is double the amount first stated. As the affair is now notoriously public, it is said the bank ought to publish the full particulars respecting this rather unpleasant affair.

In Exchange there was very little done; the rate is 51 and 51⅛ on England, and on France 5:38. There are more takers than drawers for English bills.

The arrival of the Aliado, with over 300 wounded, bringing still further details respecting the last fight, resuscitated the war question on 'Change. The prompt termination of the campaign is now no longer anticipated, it being the settled conviction of all that the war will last much longer than has been generally supposed, unless Lopez sues for peace, a contingency which is regarded as remote.

The ship-brokers to-day were very busy. The Dutch schooner Pleiaden has been chartered to load beef for Havannah, at 6r.

The Dutch schooner Federicks also chartered to load salted hides here for England, 42s 6d and 5%.

The Dutch schooner Orion, same terms and destiny.

Italian barque Rivorette has been placed on the berth to load for Antwerp, by Rossi.

British barque Morning Light has been placed on the berth to load for New York, at current rates, by Messrs Tay & Upton.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1868.

P.p. Mauá and Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE

CONDITIONS.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

To the proprietors of horses.

As the winter season has now set in and the camp is improving I beg to advise horse-owners that I am ready to take charge of horses at so much per month for pasturage, at the same time making myself responsible for the value of any horses lost (not including such as may die a natural death), on the following conditions:

1st. Horses not exceeding $600 in value will pay 80$ per month.

2nd. Horses worth from 600 to 1,000$ will pay 100$ and horses worth over 1000$ shall be charged 10 per cent., on their value for monthly pasturage.

3rd. Horse-owners will have to send for their horses to the estancia, and when delivering them will get a receipt from the Mayordomo; but when there are more than 4 horses the undersigned will send to take them or return them to town at 60$ a head.

4th. Horse-owners may leave their animals as long as they like, but cannot take them away until first paying whatever is due for them.

5th. After 4 months of pasturage the owner will be required to pay the cost of same, and if this be not satisfied within a further term of 2 months the horses will be confiscated as property of the estancia and branded with the estancia-mark.

6th. Every horse-owner will receive a ticket bearing my signature, expressing the value of the horses left for pasture, the date and conditions.

7th. Every horse-owner shall deliver to me the 'boletos' of the horses or a copy of same, to prevent the horses being seized as stray animals.

8th. In case of a horse dying, a piece of his hide with the mark will be returned to the owner.

The Estancia 'Santa Maria' is distant 11 leagues from Buenos Ayres, partido of Ensenada, near the Donselaar station on the Great Southern Railway.
